"I'm a survivor — a survivor of a general wreck. You see," she added, "how that's to be taken into account — that everyone else HAS gone. When I was ten years old there were, with my father and my mother, six of us. I'm all that's left. But they died, "she went on, to be fair all around, "of different things. Still, there it is. And, as I told you before, I'm American. Not that I mean that makes me worse. However, you'll probably know what it makes me."
